Though you guys are the culprits in this case, you're still patients that need medical attention.
The disease itself makes you a threat to yourself and others.
And your criminal acts, as well as family issues, only add to that.

WHO ARE YOU CALLING A HATCHLING!?
If you're referring to that hatchling over there, there's no family issues or anything else there. ..Rather, she's an enemy.
Family issues...?
I'll hear about your motives and members in the station's interrogation room.
From our point of view, you're the same criminal organization.
And finally, I'll say one more thing.

Lay down your weapons and surrender.
All of you are in need of the proper medical treatment.

No matter how much pained concern you put into that, let me answer you:
"I refuse."
HEY, BLACK ONE! HOW LONG ARE YOU GOING TO BE CLINGING TO ME!?
IF YOU'RE USING YOUR MISSION AS ONSITE STAFF TO DO SOMETHING PERVERTED, I'M GOING TO RAT YOU OUT TO PUBLIC SAFETY
GI GIMME A BREAK!
Commander Signum! Since it's an order I'll fall back, but... Please, take care of yourself!
You too, Cypha!

Don't worry. This is a simple capture operation. ...I have no intention of killing her.
You're a good kid, Thema
Curren's instructions were to not "recklessly" kill any of the members of Special Section Six ..But to disperse them if a suitable opportunity presented itself
Alto is coming from above in the JF. Take the girl and secure her.
